PreCompetitive / Intermediate / Advanced

Dance Open America directors will determine, from the number of registered male competitors within an age division, whether or not males will compete with or separately from the females in a given category.

Pas de Deux: 6:00 min

Duo/Trios: 3:00 min

Ensemble (4-7 dancers): 4:00 min

Each competitor will be required to provide their own music using an MP3 file and will be required to upload their music as part of their registration.

All music must be recorded at the competitor's desired speed and cued properly at the beginning of the music. No adjustments to music can be made at the competition and are due by the last day of registration. Studio directors/competitors must have a backup CD (CD-R) readily available.

Pas de Deux dancers must submit one track only (which will be played straight through) that records the necessary amount of pause time in between the Adagio and Coda. This pause may be no longer than 15 seconds in length.

Please make sure the track does not include any additional sounds or previously recorded applause as we use videos for promotional purposes later.

Evaluation Process:

Each competitor will be judged independently in each style.

Each of the three (3) Judges will score in these 4 areas:

Artistic: 25 points total
Technique: 25 points total
Musicality: 25 points total
Line: 25 points total

Maximum Total of Points per Judge: 100 points

Please note: The judges' scores are final and unappealable.

Scores:

There will be three (3), professional qualified judges, at the competition. While dancers are on stage competing, each judge will give individual critiques and comments that will be accessible via Dance Comp Genie following the conclusion of the competition.

Each competitor will receive a score out of 300 possible points. Every performance is expected to be age-appropriate and family-friendly. Any routine that is considered by the judges to be inappropriate based upon dance moves, costumes, and/or music, will be subject to disqualification.
