

INTERNATIONAL VIDEO PRESELECTION

Dance Open America

November 11th, 12th, and 13th, 2022

We would be delighted to welcome you to the International Video Preselection. This event has been created for the dancers to be selected and receive their Golden Pass for the Dance Open America Grand Prix Finals in Miami May 11-14 of 2023. Dancers will have the opportunity to work with extraordinary artists and receive scholarships awards, which will allow you to plan your summer ahead earlier in the season.

Registration is NOW OPEN!

Deadline for submitting your videos is October 1st, 2022.

General Information

- A participant's age for Dance Open America season is determined as of January 1st, the year of the competition.
- A competitor can compete with a school or as an independent.
- Professional dancers up to 24 years old are eligible only if they have had experience as a trainee, apprentice or corps de ballet.
- For the International Video Preselection any soloist dancer must present a minimum of 2 solos with at least one being a classical routine.
- All participants must take the master classes even if you are only in an Ensemble routine.
- Dancers will register through the DanceCompGenie system (link on our website) separately and will then submit videos via WeTransfer to video@danceopenamerica.org

Divisions:

Classical and Contemporary Solos:

Rising: Age 8 to 10 years

Junior: Age 11 to 13 years

Teen: Age 14 to 16 years

Senior: Age 17 to 19 years

Professional: Age 20 to 24 years

All other categories (Duos/Trios Contemporary, Classical Pas de Deux, Ensembles: over 4 participants)

Pre-Competitive: Age 8 to 12 years

Intermediate: Age 13 to 16 years

Advanced: Age 17 to 24 years

The ages for Duos/Trios Contemporary, Classical Pas de Deux, Ensembles pieces will be averaged/combined between the ages of all participants. The category will depend on the result of this average. This will be divided among only three categories as labeled above: PreCompetitive / Intermediate / Advanced

Dance Open America directors will determine, from the number of registered male competitors within an age division, whether or not males will compete with or separately from the females in a given category.

Maximum Performance Time Allotted:

Solos: 2:45 min

Pas de Deux: 6:00 min

Duo/Trios: 3:00 min

Ensemble (4-7 dancers): 4:00 min

Ensemble (8 + dancers): 5:00 min

Evaluation Process:

Each competitor will be judged independently in each style.

Each of the three (3) Judges will score in these 4 areas:

Artistic: 25 points total

Technique: 25 points total

Musicality: 25 points total

Line: 25 points total

Maximum Total of Points per Judge: 100 points

Please note: The judges' scores are final and unappealable.

Scores:

There will be three (3) professional qualified judges at the competition. While dancers are on stage competing, each judge will give individual critiques and comments. Following the performance the level the dancer received based on score will be announced: Bronze, Silver, Gold or DOA Diamond.

Each competitor will receive a score out of 300 possible points. Every performance is expected to be age appropriate and family friendly. Any routine that is considered by the judges to be inappropriate based upon dance moves, costumes, and/or music, will be subject to disqualification.

DOA Diamond: 282-300 points

Gold: 270-281 points

Silver: 258-269 points

Bronze: 240-257 points

Scores under 240 will receive no medal awards.

Awards:

FIRST PLACE: Gold Medal

SECOND PLACE: Silver Medal

THIRD PLACE: Bronze Medal

Dance Open America will announce "Top 15" in each division.

A dancer with two solos in either the classical or contemporary category will be considered for placement qualification and awards based on their higher scoring solo. For example, you would not be given both a Gold and Silver medal within the same category.

Master Class Auditions:

The aim of Dance Open America is to preserve the legacy of Classic Ballet and educate students about the art of ballet and to help prepare them to reach their full potential and dreams.
