

VIRTUAL GRAND PRIX

Dance Open America

June 3 - 4 - 5, 2022

We would be delighted to welcome you to the Virtual Grand Prix Finals. This event has been created for the dancers outside of the United States and will be held via Zoom.

Registration is now open.

Deadline for submitting your videos is May 1st, 2022.

During the Virtual Grand Prix Finals, we are pleased to announce:

Dance Open America Artistic Award 2022

Honoring the Excellence and Extraordinary Career

Ben Stevenson, O.B.E.

"Dance is a natural part of us - even babies move to music. It's an inherent form of expression and can be developed in such beautiful ways." - Ben Stevenson, O.B.E., Artistic Director

General Information 2022:

- A participant's age for Dance Open America season is determined as of January 1st, the year of the competition.
- A competitor can compete with a school or as an independent.
- Professional dancers up to 23 years old are eligible only if they have had experience as a trainee, apprentice or corps de ballet.

Divisions:

Classical and Contemporary Solos:

Rising: Age 8 to 10 years

Junior: Age 11 to 13 years

Teen: Age 14 to 16 years

Senior: Age 17 to 19 years

Professional: Age 20 to 23 years

All other categories (Duos/Trios Contemporary, Classical Pas de Deux, Ensembles: over 4 participants)

Pre-Competitive: Age 8 to 12 years

Intermediate: Age 13 to 16 years

Advanced: Age 17 to 23 years

DanceComp Genie should automatically reflect which division you are in based on the date of birth entered.

The ages for ensemble pieces will be averaged/combined between the ages of all participants. The category of the ensemble will depend on the result of this average. For Duos/Trios Contemporary, Pas de Deux Classical or Ensembles it will be divided among only three categories as labeled above:

PreCompetitive, Intermediate and Advanced

Maximum Performance Time Allotted:

Solos: 2:45 min

Pas de Deux: 6:00 min

Duo/Trios: 3:00 min

Ensemble (4-7 dancers): 4:00 min

Ensemble (8 + dancers): 5:00 min

Evaluation Process:

Each competitor will be judged independently in each style.

Each of the three (3) Judges will score in these 4 areas:

Artistic: 25 points total

Technique: 25 points total

Musicality: 25 points total

Line: 25 points total

Maximum Total of Points per Judge: 100 points

Please note: The judges' scores are final and unappealable.

Scores:

There will be three (3) professional qualified judges at the competition. While dancers are on stage competing, each judge will give individual critiques and comments. Following the performance the level the dancer received based on score will be announced: Bronze, Silver, Gold or DOA Diamond.

Each competitor will receive a score out of 300 possible points. Every performance is expected to be age appropriate and family friendly. Any routine that is considered by the judges to be inappropriate based upon dance moves, costumes, and/or music, will be subject to disqualification.

DOA Diamond: 282-300 points

Gold: 270-281 points

Silver: 258-269 points

Bronze: 240-257 points

Scores under 240 will receive no medal awards.

Awards:

FIRST PLACE: Gold Medal

SECOND PLACE: Silver Medal

THIRD PLACE: Bronze Medal

Dance Open America will announce "Top 15" in each division.

Our Masterclass

The aim of Dance Open America is to preserve the legacy of Classic Ballet and educate students about the art of ballet and to help prepare them to reach their full potential and dreams.

All competitors have the unique opportunity to participate in Master Class Auditions. We offer a fantastic opportunity for students to be observed by World renowned Artistic Directors, Choreographers and teachers in a variety of Dance Genres, from around the globe.

Reaching a high level of expertise. Students are selected during these classes for possible future Scholarships and company contracts. We allow students the opportunity to interact and get inspired through conversations with the stars.

Certificate of Participation:

Each competitor will receive a CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION for their adjudicated scores. In addition, a high score awards medal will be given to the top scores in each category within an age division. DOA reserves the right to limit awards based on number of entries in the category.

The Grand Prix Award will be presented to a dancer in the teen, senior or professional age division. Selection will be done by the DOA judges panel in the category of classical ballet and contemporary dance. In order to qualify for the Grand Prix DOA Award, a soloist competitor must compete in both a classical ballet solo and contemporary/lyrical dance solo.

Additional Information:

Dance Open America is open to dance students from all over the globe, accepting dancers ages 8-23 years old.

A participant's age for the entire Dance Open America season is determined strictly as of January 1, of the year of the competition. A competitor can compete with a school or as an independent.

Professional dancers up to 23 years old are eligible only if they have had experience as a trainee, apprentice or corps de ballet.

The ages for ensemble pieces will be averaged/combined between the ages of all participants. The category of the ensemble will depend on the result of this average.

Depending on the average age of the dancers, Pas de Deux and Duo/Trio may be judged in a separate category.

Dance Open America directors will determine, from the number of registered male competitors within an age division, whether or not males will compete with or separately from the females in a given category.

Soloist competitors can choose to enter one or more solos in either: classical ballet or contemporary category or both. However, the highest scoring solo for that competition will be considered for award and placement qualification. A soloist competitor will not be awarded both the Gold and Silver medals within the same category.

We encourage all participants, parents, and teachers to check our website <http://www.danceopenamerica.us> and FOLLOW ON FACEBOOK, AND INSTAGRAM for the latest registration information and other updates.

To register, you can use your account with Dance Comp Genie. If you do not have an account, you must open an account before registering. Verify that all the data is entered correctly. After completing the registration, including the payment section, you will receive a confirmation email to the email address provided in your Dance Comp Genie account.

Dance Open America and the venue hosting the event are not responsible for any personal injury or property loss that is suffered by anyone attending or participating in the competition. Dance Open America reserves the right, when necessary, to relocate a competition site/date/time or expand a competition to a multiple day event if necessary. All changes to original submitted entries must be in writing; no verbal requests will be honored. Changes to original entries must be received seven (7) days before the competition event.

Dance Open America reserves the rights to change, delete, or add to any rules, regulations, or policies at any time deemed necessary. Dance Open America reserves the right to cancel any event due to lack of registration, weather, or other unforeseen circumstance. If an extenuating weather or unforeseen circumstance arises and Dance Open America cancels an event and it is not rescheduled, refunds or credits for the following year will be issued. If the event is rescheduled, no refunds will be given. Should an extenuating circumstance arise, please check the website and/or your email address that you registered under for any event updates. Dance Open America requests any questions regarding schedule changes should be submitted by the Studio Directors.
