Lauren Anderson

Education & Community Engagement

Associate Director – Houston Ballet

Native Houstonian Lauren Anderson danced with Houston Ballet from 1983 to 2006, performing leading roles in all the great classical ballets, appearing across the world to critical acclaim, and in the process, becoming one of Houston Ballet's most beloved stars.

She joined Houston Ballet in 1983 as a Corps de Ballet, 1987 was promoted to Soloist and in 1990 became the first African-American to be promoted to principal dancer at Houston Ballet – and one of the few African-American ballerinas at the head of a major ballet company anywhere in the world.

She has performed across the globe as a guest artist. She created the title role in Ben Stevenson's Cleopatra, and her performance as Cleopatra received accolades from international critics.
