Why Fort Lauderdale?

Known as the "Venice of America," Fort Lauderdale is a vibrant coastal city celebrated for its beautiful beaches, dynamic arts scene, and world-class hospitality. With its thriving cultural institutions, international accessibility, and diverse community, the city offers an inspiring and welcoming environment for artists, performers, and audiences alike.

Fort Lauderdale offers:

- ✓ Convenient proximity to Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport (FLL)
- ✓ Easy access to gorgeous Atlantic beaches just minutes away
- ✓ A wide selection of hotels, restaurants, and family-friendly attractions
- ✓ Low traffic congestion and easier local transportation
- ✓ Beautiful performance venues equipped to meet the high standards of our event
- ✓ A strong local commitment to the arts and youth development

General Information:

- ✓ A participant's age for Dance Open America season is determined as of January 1st, the year of the competition.
- ✓ A competitor can compete with a school or as an independent.
- ✓ Professional dancers up to 24 years old are eligible.
- ✓ For the Grand Prix Finals any soloist dancer must present a minimum of 3 solos with at least ones being a classical routine.
- ✓ A Pas de Deux dancer can compete as a soloist with a min of two solos.
- ✓ All participants must take the master classes even if you are only in an Ensemble routine.

The Theater:

Lauderhill Performing Arts Center

We are thrilled to welcome you to the stunning Lauderhill Performing Arts Center—a beacon of creativity, diversity, and community spirit.

The mission of the Lauderhill Performing Arts Center is to provide high-quality, diverse performing arts programming to the City of Lauderhill and its surrounding communities. As a vibrant hub for artistic expression and civic engagement, it serves as a catalyst for cultural enrichment and positive economic growth.

Opened on January 20, 2016, this state-of-the-art facility is a LEED Silver certified structure, dedicated to sustainability and innovation in the arts. The venue hosts a wide array of events including music, theater, dance, cinema, and visual arts, making it a perfect home for Grand Prix Dance Open America's celebration of talent and artistic excellence.

Join us for a spectacular experience in this extraordinary space as we bring together dancers, educators, and enthusiasts from across the globe.

Divisions

Classical and Contemporary Solos:

Rising: Age 8 to 10 years

Junior: Age 11 to 13 years

Teen: Age 14 to 16 years

Senior: Age 17 to 19 years

Professional: Age 20 to 24 years

All other categories

(Duos/Trios Contemporary, Classical Pas de Deux, Ensembles: over 4 participants)

Intermediate: Age 8 to 14 years

Advanced: Age 15 to 24 years

The ages for Duos/Trios Contemporary, Classical Pas de Deux, and Ensembles pieces will be averaged/combined between the ages of all participants. The category will depend on the result of this average. This will be divided among only three categories as labeled above:

Intermediate/Advanced

Dance Open America directors will determine, from the number of registered male competitors within an age division, whether or not males will compete with or separately from the females in a given category.

Evaluation Process:

Each competitor will be judged independently in each style.

Each of the three (3) Judges will score a Maximum Total of 100 Points

Please note: The judges' scores are final and unappealable.

Maximum Performance Time Allowed:

Solos: 2:45 min

Pas de Deux: 6:00 min

Duo/Trios: 3:00 min

Ensemble (4-7 dancers): 4:00 min

Ensemble (8 + dancers): 5:00 min

Music:

Each competitor will be required to provide their own music using an MP3 file and will be required to upload their music as part of their registration.

All music must be recorded at the competitor's desired speed and cued properly at the beginning of the music. No adjustments to music can be made at the competition and are due by the last day of registration. Studio directors/competitors must have a backup USB readily available.

Pas de Deux dancers must submit one track only (which will be played straight through) that records the necessary amount of pause time in between the Adagio and Coda. This pause may be no longer than 15 seconds in length.

Please make sure the track does not include any additional sounds or previously recorded applause as we use videos for promotional purposes later.

Scores:

There will be three (3), professional qualified judges, at the competition. While dancers are on stage competing, each judge will give individual critiques and comments that will be accessible via Dance Comp Genie following the conclusion of the competition.

Each competitor will receive a score out of 300 possible points. Every performance is expected to be age-appropriate and family-friendly. Any routine that is considered by the judges to be inappropriate based upon dance moves, costumes, and/or music, will be subject to disqualification.

Awards:

FIRST PLACE: Gold Medal

SECOND PLACE: Silver Medal

THIRD PLACE: Bronze Medal

Dance Open America will announce the "Top 15 or 25" in each division.

A dancer with two solos in either the classical or contemporary category will be considered for placement qualification and awards based on their higher scoring solo. For example, you would not be given both a gold and silver medal within the same category.

Certificate of Achievement:

Each competitor will receive a CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT for their participation. In addition, a high score awards medal will be given to the top scores in each category within an age division. DOA reserves the right to limit awards based on the number of entries in the category.

Performing on Pointe:

We are strongly committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of all dancers, especially our youngest participants. Please make sure that you adhere to the guidelines set forth below:

Students Age 10 and under: We recommend performing in flat shoes.

Students Age 11 and older: We strongly encourage performing on pointe.

Teacher Credential:

When registering your dancers online, please be sure to list your Teacher and Director in the "Teacher" field of your registration process. If theater rules allow, we will distribute 2 Credentials per school.

Due to each theater's security regulations, teachers/directors must provide a photo ID at the registration table located inside the theater. Please note that we will not be able to replace misplaced or stolen Credentials.

Teachers and directors with their credentials will have access to participate in all master classes and open competitions. The competition schedule will be sent via email two weeks before the events.

Scholarship Offers:

Participants who receive scholarship offers or letters of interest/acceptance from Grand Prix Dance Open America should follow up directly with the contact information provided by the presenting school or company. We kindly ask participants to then inform our regional office once any offers have been formally accepted.

Videos and Photography:

Dance Open America will provide professional photography and video of each competitor's performance for purchase. No personal flash photography or videotaping will be permitted inside the competition venue. If photography or videotaping is identified, DOA reserves the right to confiscate the camera/video equipment and disqualify the competitor's performance.

Release Agreement:

By signing the Dance Open America Release Agreement, all registered competitors grant permission to Dance Open America and its representatives to publish their photographs/videos on local or national television, promotional videos, marketing materials, the internet, or any other visual media, as deemed fit by Dance Open America in an effort to promote its competitions.

All photographs/videos taken by Dance Open America and any independent representative commissioned by Dance Open America become the property of Dance Open America.

Dance Open America reserves the right to sell said photographs/videos at competition events and online for purchase of DVD or by download.

In addition, all representatives, staff, or kin of Dance Open America are released and held harmless from any and all claims for damages or injuries sustained while participating or attending any activity related to any and all Dance Open America events.

Registration & Policies

Registration must be completed through DanceComp Genie. Participants without an account must create one prior to registration. Please verify that all information is entered correctly. A confirmation email will be sent once registration and payment have been completed.

Dance Open America reserves the right to modify rules, regulations, schedules, or policies at any time as deemed necessary.
