General Information 2022:

- A participant's age for Dance Open America season is determined as of January 1st, the year of the competition.
- A competitor can compete with a school or as an independent.
- Professional dancers up to 23 years old are eligible only if they have had experience as a trainee, apprentice or corps de ballet.

Divisions:

Classical and Contemporary Solos:

Rising: Age 8 to 10 years

Junior: Age 11 to 13 years

Teen: Age 14 to 16 years

Senior: Age 17 to 19 years

Professional: Age 20 to 23 years

All other categories (Duos/Trios Contemporary, Classical Pas de Deux, Ensembles: over 4 participants)

Pre-Competitive: Age 8 to 12 years

Intermediate: Age 13 to 16 years

Advanced: Age 17 to 23 years

DanceComp Genie should automatically reflect which division you are in based on the date of birth entered.

The ages for ensemble pieces will be averaged/combined between the ages of all participants. The category of the ensemble will depend on the result of this average. For Duos/Trios Contemporary, Pas de Deux Classical or Ensembles it will be divided among only three categories as labeled above:

PreCompetitive, Intermediate and Advanced

Maximum Performance Time Allotted:

Solos: 2:45 min

Pas de Deux: 6:00 min

Duo/Trios: 3:00 min

Ensemble (4-7 dancers): 4:00 min

Ensemble (8 + dancers): 5:00 min

Evaluation Process:

Each competitor will be judged independently in each style.

Each of the three (3) Judges will score in these 4 areas:

Artistic: 25 points total

Technique: 25 points total

Musicality: 25 points total

Line: 25 points total

Maximum Total of Points per Judge: 100 points

Please note: The judges' scores are final and unappealable.

Scores:

There will be three (3) professional qualified judges at the competition. While dancers are on stage competing, each judge will give individual critiques and comments. Following the performance the level the dancer received based on score will be announced: Bronze, Silver, Gold or DOA Diamond.

Each competitor will receive a score out of 300 possible points. Every performance is expected to be age appropriate and family friendly. Any routine that is considered by the judges to be inappropriate based upon dance moves, costumes, and/or music, will be subject to disqualification.

DOA Diamond: 282-300 points

Gold: 270-281 points

Silver: 258-269 points

Bronze: 240-257 points

Scores under 240 will receive no medal awards.

Awards:

FIRST PLACE: Gold Medal

SECOND PLACE: Silver Medal

THIRD PLACE: Bronze Medal

Dance Open America will announce "Top 15" in each division.

Certificate of Participation:

Each competitor will receive a CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION for their adjudicated scores. In addition, a high score awards medal will be given to the top scores in each category within an age division. DOA reserves the right to limit awards based on number of entries in the category.

The Grand Prix Award will be presented to a dancer in the teen, senior or professional age division. Selection will be done by the DOA judges panel in the category of classical ballet and contemporary dance. In order to qualify for the Grand Prix DOA Award, a soloist competitor must compete in both a classical ballet solo and contemporary/lyrical dance solo.

Music:

Each competitor will be required to provide their own music using an MP3 file and will be required to upload their music as part of their registration.

All music must be recorded at competitor's desired speed and cued properly at the beginning of the music. No adjustments to music can be made at the competition and due by the last day of registration. Studio directors/competitors must have a backup CD (CD-R) readily available.

Performing on Pointe:

We are strongly committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of all dancers, and especially of our youngest participants. Please make sure that you adhere to the guidelines set forth below:

Students Age 10 and under: We recommend performing in flat shoes.

Students Age 11 and older: We strongly encourage performing on pointe.

Teacher Credential:

When registering your dancers online, please be sure to list your Teacher and Director in the "Teacher" field of your registration process. If theater rules allow, we will distribute 2 Credentials per each school.

Due to each theater's security regulations, teachers / directors must provide a photo ID at the registration table located inside the theater. Please note that we will not be able to replace misplaced or stolen Credential.

Teachers and directors with their credentials will have access to participate in all master classes and open competitions. The competition schedule will be sent via email two weeks before the events.

Scholarship Offers:

Participants who receive scholarship offers or letters of interest/acceptance from Grand Prix Dance Open America should follow up directly with the contact information provided from the presenting school or company. We kindly ask participants to then inform our regional office once any offers have been formally accepted.

Videos and Photography:

Dance Open America will provide professional photography and video of each competitor's performance for purchase. No personal flash photography or videotaping will be permitted inside the competition venue. If photography or videotaping is identified, DOA reserves the right to confiscate the camera/video equipment and disqualify the competitor's performance.

Release Agreement:

By signing the Dance Open America Release Agreement, all registered competitors grant permission to Dance Open America and its representatives to publish their photographs/videos on local or national television, promotional videos, marketing materials, the internet, or any other visual media, as deemed fit by Dance Open America in an effort to promote its competitions.

All photographs/videos taken by Dance Open America and any independent representative commissioned by Dance Open America become the property of Dance Open America.

Dance Open America reserves the right to sell said photographs/videos at competition events and online for purchase of DVD or by download.

In addition, all representatives, staff, or kin of Dance Open America is released and held harmless from any and all claims for damages or injuries sustained while participating or attending any activity related to any and all Dance Open America events.

Additional Information:

Dance Open America is open to dance students from all over the globe, accepting dancers ages 8-23 years old.

A participant's age for the entire Dance Open America season is determined strictly as of January 1, of the year of the competition. A competitor can compete with a school or as an independent.

Professional dancers up to 23 years old are eligible only if they have had experience as a trainee, apprentice or corps de ballet.

The ages for ensemble pieces will be averaged/combined between the ages of all participants. The category of the ensemble will depend on the result of this average.

Depending on the average age of the dancers, Pas de Deux and Duo/Trio may be judged in a separate category.

Dance Open America directors will determine, from the number of registered male competitors within an age division, whether or not males will compete with or separately from the females in a given category.

Soloist competitors can choose to enter one or more solos in either: classical ballet or contemporary category or both. However, the highest scoring solo for that competition will be considered for award and placement qualification. A soloist competitor will not be awarded both the Gold and Silver medals within the same category.

We encourage all participants, parents, and teachers to check our website <http://www.danceopenamerica.us> and FOLLOW ON FACEBOOK, AND INSTAGRAM for the latest registration information and other updates.

To register, you can use your account with Dance Comp Genie. If you do not have an account, you must open an account before registering. Verify that all the data is entered correctly. After completing the registration, including the payment section, you will receive a confirmation email to the email address provided in your Dance Comp Genie account.
